Senior Cheerleaders (l-r) Julie Pawlick, Michelle Hirsh, Lisa Polchlopek, Kerri Sheehan, Kim Hart, and Rachael Cook

The 1990-1991 cheerleading squad was led by senior tri-captains Michelle Hirsh, Lisa Polchlopek, and Kerri Sheehan. This season was Dawn Orlando's first year as head coach. The team was high-spirited and hard working. These girls have a lot to be proud of.

Marching Band

This year's band did better than any band in the history of Methuen High. Led by drum majors Curtis Moore and Kim Andrew and soloist Marc Angelone, the band took first place in the categories of percussion, drum major, color guard, and music at almost every competition. This winning streak carried over into finals where they took second place.

CLASS HISTORY

As we received our diplomas from eighth grade, we anticipated the first day of high school here at MHS.

The time came for freshman elections and we picked our officers. They were Kerrie Belluardo — President; Kellie Belluardo — Vice President; Kerri Sheehan — treasurer; and Katie Gilberti — secretary.

Many of our sports teams upheld the winning traditions of the Methuen High School Rangers. The girls' softball and spring track teams as well as the boys' cross country, baseball, and the gymnastics teams all turned in excellent performances and winning records.

The holidays arrived and we eagerly awaited our Christmas Vacation.

When we returned, the days quickly passed by until it was finally time for summer vacation and the beginning of our sophomore year.

Well we made it through our first year, mostly unscathed. After realizing that there was no third floor or pool, we were on our way. No longer were we freshman, but one rank higher, sophomores. We were no longer the bottom of the barrel. Now even we had someone lower than us. We started to know the school a little bit better, and getting to class in those five minutes didn't seem as hard.

Our class officers were chosen and those lucky few individuals were, Beth Licciardi as president, Shanna Lynch as vice-president, Richelle Martin as secretary, and Heather Park as treasurer.

Our sports teams were on a roll, volleyball finished a very fine 11-9 season. Football also played well with a 6-4 season and finishing fourth in the MVC. Field hockey and soccer were still in the rebuilding years but kept the ranger spirit alive. Girls cross country finished the season with 7 wins and 5 losses, while the boys rally 5 wins and 6 losses. Both gave it their best. The swimming team placed 12th in the MVC. The girls and boys indoor track teams both had winning seasons with the boys placing well in the states and the girls just missing the MVC title by one point. The girls basketball team dribbled their way to a 17-5 season. This was the fourth consecutive year that they qualified for the states. The boys basketball team was an improving team with a 5-15 record and placing third in the division. The girls gymnastics team had an outstanding season with a 7-2 record and Kerrie Beeley qualified for the individual state meet. Golf had a record of 9-6-2 with Derek Ladd getting All-Star honors. Hockey has a 4-14-1 season, but the rebuilding stages weren't over and the best was yet to come. Wrestling finished with an outstanding 25-4 record making this the fourth time getting to the state meet. Dan Alicia made the All-Star team, and there was still more for him to come.

Not all was pleasant this year. We all had to say good-bye to a good friend, Paul Zamojski, who died well before his time. He was a good kid and we will all remember him.

Well Christmas came and went and before we knew it it was spring and we made it through. We were upperclassmen now.

Junior year, what surprises were in store for us. We were climbing the ranks. It was our turn to tell the little freshmen to go to the pool and spa down by the gym and the basement. We were growing up as well. This would be one of the toughest years in our high school years.

Our class officers were picked again and again. Beth Licciardi was president, Derek Ladd was vice-president, Kathy McEneaney was secretary and Heather Park was once again our treasurer.

It was a tough season for most of our teams this year. They were plagued with injuries and setbacks. This, however, didn't let our ranger pride fall. Field hockey did finish the season with a fine record with Shanna Lynch getting All Conference Honors. Girls basketball did capture the MVC small school title and made it to the States Division Northeastern Finalists. Girls track had a tremendous season with only one loss to undefeated Tewksbury. They made it to the MVC small school states. Boys and girls outdoor track had fine seasons with the girls winning the class B state championship. Baseball and softball both advanced into the quarter final rounds of the state tournament.

The cheerleading squad had a fantastic season making it all the way to the championships in Texas. They put on a fine performance.

We attended the Model UN and debated with other schools. We showed them what we were made of. By spring we were all getting ready for the Semi-formal and picking our schedules for our final year. After three years, it was our turn to be at the top of the heap, and we are the best senior class ever to leave Methuen High School.

Well, it finally arrived the first day of our last and most memorable year — we were seniors!!

Our class officers that were chosen this year were Beth Liccardi — president; Shanna Lynch — vice president; Keith Poulin — secretary; and Heather Park — treasurer. The National Honor Society officers were also chosen. They were president — Mark Anthony Angelone; vice-president — Julie Sullivan; Historian — Ravi Agarwal; secretary — Katie Gilberti; and treasurer — Jill Sunderland.

The Methuen High Athletics all had outstanding seasons this year. Many teams went on to state tournaments, won division titles, and achieved personal goals. Congratulations to all the athletes and captains who made this all possible. This was a year we will never forget.

Our homecoming queen, Shauna Max, was crowned at the annual Thanksgiving Day game against Central Catholic. She was accompanied by Laurie Hoffman — 1st runner up, and Kathy Lister — 2nd runner up.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile Drive in December 1990, and May 1991 was a great success. Thanks to all the donors and volunteers that participated.

As we returned from Christmas vacation we looked forward to the last four months of high school.

The senior class play "Don't Rock The Boat" was a great success, "The Mystery of Edwin Drood", Methuen High's 1st musical in a number of years was also a hit.

Then came an abundance of senior activities. We elected superlatives, submitted our special messages for the yearbook, left things to our friends (and enemies!) in the will, picked up our caps and gowns, and looked forward to Awards Night and the Honors Banquet.

Many students were also filling out scholarship applications, deciding on where to attend college, and making plans for the future.

Finally, it came time for the prom and eventually GRADUATION!!!

Even though we hardly had any special privileges it was still a good year. Good luck to all the members of the Class of 1991 in the future. We hope to see you at our 10th-year reunion.

PROPHECY

During the summer of 2001, Derek and I bumped into our old buddy Dave Whiting while doing our community service work at Shady Acres Retirement Home. He told us that it was time to round up our old classmates from Methuen High for our ten year reunion. To help us out as he always has, he gave us a list of contacts in various states that would help us in quickly locating everyone in time for the reunion. Our first stop was California, more specifically, Los Angeles. When we stepped off our jet we met our first contact Senator Ajay "Evander" Kuntamukkala and his secretary Mike "Desert Storm" Ferrara. He presented us with a list of names and told us that we would have little trouble finding them around L.A. We began our search on Hollywood Boulevard where we found a group of MHS finest girls sleeping in their elegant cardboard box homes. Tracie Bowker, Christine Hersey and JoAnna Emery were more than happy to find a place where there would be free food and a warm bed and agreed to come.

Derek and I proceeded to a more lavish part of California; Beverly Hills, where we found Kelly Steele premiering in her first adult movie opposite Curtis Moore in "Big Women, Small Men" written and directed by Kristina Tarrini.

We moved on again this time to San Francisco where we ran into Sergio Viera and Shane Jozokos, still driving around in his mother's red Mustang GT, who told us about a contest that a few of our fellow classmates were competing in so we decided to go. When we arrived inside we saw Jack Lees and Keith Poulin in first place and runner up of the "Mr. I Am The Universe Contest."

By now we had completed our list, we boarded our jet and decided to move east to Illinois where we met up with our second contact Sean "Fist of Fury" Foley now a world renowned writer of the #1 best seller "How to Treat a Girlfriend" published by the president of the Donga company Laurie Berryman.

Our first stop in Illinois was in Chicago where Sean decided to get us some hot tickets to the Bulls game from convict Mark Gabryjelski. We got there just in time to see Chris Sam mataro do a 360 jam on a breakaway only to be fouled and thrown to the ground by Miami Heats first female professional player Tara Mansour. But not to worry, because muscle men Skip Buonnano and Kevin O'Loughlin were on top of things, jumping off the bench to beat up Tara. What a game!

Next, we went to the Oprah Winfrey show with fill-in-host Sarah Marcoux and today's topic being why people deal with bad relationships. Guests stars Shanna Lynch and Chuck Salvo. After completing our mission in the state we jetted down to Colorado where we met Chad Pfeil. He started us on our search by bringing us to Muamar where we found pilot Mark Angelone and his co-pilot Katie Gilberti otherwise known as "Sharpe Eye" and "Ever Ready." We jumped aboard their aircraft and flew up to Vail where we found ski instructors Erin Galvin and Michelle Poirier hard at work. They told us about a new club called Double vision. Erin thought that we could find a lot of our classmates there. When we got outside there we saw a sign outside saying there was live entertainment by the no so Divine Sisters, Kerrie & Kellie Belluardo and Amanda Auteri. Inside we found Brad & Bryan Gosselin behind the bar, while Kerri & Kelly Sheehan paraded around in skimpy outfits serving drinks. Our mission now took us to New York where we met up with another contact, cab driver Mac Livingston. He thought it would be nice to show us the finer parts of N.Y., starting with NYC. Here we met up with Rick Juknavorian, on his way to ballet practice. Across the way there was a high fashion modeling shoot taking place. On the set we found designer Liz Grenier, and make-up artist Katrina Blaisdell.

Further down in Harlem we found a huge party hosted by Gannon Woekel. As usual Gannon still finds time to throw parties every weekend while balancing several jobs at the nearby mall.

And our last trip while in New York was to the Playboy mansion where we found Playboys Roy D'Agata and Joe Currao editing the homemade centerfolds in by Kerry Beeley.

Next we ventured south to Florida where we found our fifth contact John Desmet, a tour guide for bachelor's club in Daytona. He brought us to the Miss Daytona Beach contest just in time to see Tina Hardy crowned by judges Roseanna Graviano, Celena Pelletier, and Kelly Hutton.

Down a little further in Tampa Bay, we saw football great Frank Graziano getting in shape with athletic trainer Diana Diaz for his upcoming season. Also at the location was aerobic trainer and drug tester Kelly Noyes.

On our way back to the airport we stopped by a fat farm where we found co-owners Kathy Broadhurst and Kevin Rys combined weighing only 175 pounds.

We decided to go to one more state before returning to MA. We headed for Pennsylvania. Here we found our contact Father Greg Wright. He thought he would like to show us some of the girls that recently joined the sisterhood. Among them were Nancy Ruhmann, Breda Putnam, Julie Sullivan and Karen Kalitka. Due to his retreat he could only spend a short while with us. He left us with another contact, sex therapist Kathie McEneaney and her partner Gay Rights Activist Mike Stumpo. They took us to a singles bar where we found exotic dancers Jay Soucy & Ted Andrew. Among the screaming fans were Katie Fleming, Kathy Lister, and Heather Park.

It was now time for us to head back to Massachusetts. There we would be meeting housewife Wendy Smith. We jumped in the wagon and headed for good old M.H.S. Along our way we saw a group of activists protesting the school system. Among them were Chrisinda Wain, Dana Viverous, and Tricia Voisine. A little bit further down the road we say Ryan Brooks and Mike Battye cruising down Haverhill Street chasing Pete Shipulski on his turbo Schwinn bicycle.

We finally arrived at M.H.S. Our journey was finished and it was time for our reunion. About the only thing that changed at our school since we left was our principal, now Carlo Licausi.
